Lernziele/ Learning targets The seminar is aimed for advanced graduate students. The students are required to read and understand modern papers published in leading economics journals. They should write their own paper and present it in class. We will offer support regarding the literature, the structuring of your own paper and the presentation. The aim of the module is that students read, understand and explain original papers. Thus the module is a good exercise for research projects like master's thesis.
Inhalt/ Contents The topics vary from semester to semester, but they are usually related to our other advanced master modules.
Lehrformen/ Teaching methods Introductory session and presentations (block event).
